Sandy:

I am an attorney in San Diego, California, with the lawfirm Cooley Godward Kronish LLP. We have several offices in California and on the East Coast (including Reston, Virginia). The attached e-mail was forwarded to me by a victim of Katrina who I assisted in a dispute with FEMA. I wanted to let you know that if Levees.org needs legal assistance stemming from the ASCE letter, there are plenty of top lawfirms (including my own) that would consider representing Levees.org on a pro bono basis. I can't say for sure that Cooley could take your case, because such representation is subject to conflicts and other considerations, but if you need legal assistance please call or e-mail me and I'll do everything I can to find you excellent, free legal assistance.

Best regards,

Samantha M. Everett, Esq.
